SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO.

1. An order was issued [redacted] in Döberitz (Z-65) stopping shipments of dependents to Russia "in daily special trains".
2. Two armored divisions equipped with T-34 tanks and a heavy artillery unit were recently transferred from Döberitz to border points along the Elbe. Though Döberitz is now relatively empty, more houses are being requisitioned.
3. Soviet troops without identifying insignia for the arm of service have been in Döberitz since early March 1948. A report states that they have "front camouflage".
4. [redacted] troops sent back to Russia in 1946 and 1947 have returned, meanwhile having had special training in close combat and parachute jumping.
